

Employer Terms of Use

1. General.

These Employer Terms of Use will apply to and govern (i) each Sales Order (other than Sales Orders described in the last sentence of this Section 1(a)) entered into between Customer and Snagajob.com, Inc. ("Snag") and the services described in such Sales Orders as fully as if the provisions of these Employer Terms of Use were set forth in their entirety in each such Sales Order, and (ii) each other order of services by Customer on or through the Snagajob website without a Sales Order ("Website Orders") and the services covered by such Website Orders. The services described in Sales Orders and covered by Website Orders are referred to herein collectively as the "Services." By contracting for Services or using the Snag site, as defined below, Customer also agrees to comply with and be bound by the Snagajob Terms of Use found at snagajob.com/terms. These Employer Terms of Use do not apply to or govern any Sales Orders or Services which are governed by a Master Services Agreement, or any similar written agreement, signed by Customer and Snag.

2. Services.

(a) Customer and Snag agree that Snag will provide or make available to Customer the services or other offerings described in each Sales Order or covered by each Website Order, as applicable, for the service period(s) specified in, or to the extent otherwise provided in, such Sales Order or the applicable Website Order Terms (the "Service Periods"). The Services may be provided, as applicable, through the use of the Snag website (the "Snag Site") and/or the "Snag for Employers" mobile application (the "App") and may involve Snag using or making available to Customer certain software and other tools owned by or licensed to Snag (the "Software").

(b) Snag may make available third-party products and/or services for integration with the Services, pursuant to a Website Order or a Sales Order (collectively, "Third-Party Offerings"). Customer agrees that Snag is not responsible for, and does not provide or control, those Third-Party Offerings. Snag encourages Customer to read the legal notices and privacy policies of each and every provider of such Third-Party Offering. Customer's use of a Third-Party Offering will be subject to the terms of use, privacy policy, and any other applicable terms and conditions, required by the provider of such Third-Party Offering. Snag makes available Third-Party Offerings only as a convenience and does not review, approve, monitor, endorse, warrant, or make any representations with respect to Third-Party Offerings, and Customer accesses and/or uses all such Third-Party Offerings at its own risk.

(c) In connection with purchasing the Services, Customer will be responsible for obtaining and maintaining at its expense all computer hardware, software and communications equipment and connections, including mobile devices and wireless data services, required for Customers to access the Snag Site and/or the App and to access and use the applicable Services. By using the App, Customer consents to receive, at its cost, electronic communications from Snag.

(d) Snag reserves the right to make modifications to the Services, the Snag Site, the App and/or the Software during the term of any applicable Sales Order or Website Order; provided that such modifications do not have a material adverse effect on the functionality of the Services.

3. License; Limitations.

(a) During the applicable Service Periods, Snag grants to Customer a limited, nonexclusive, nontransferable and nonsublicenseable license (i) to access and use the Snag Site, the App and the Software, and (ii) to use any documentation provided to Customer by Snag in connection with the Services, in each case to the extent necessary to access and use the Services for the periods and quantities purchased under the applicable Sales Order or Website Order.

(b) This license is limited to Customer and it may not be resold, sublicensed, leased or otherwise made available to any third party. This license is also limited to the number of locations or quantity of units purchased by Customer and specified on the applicable Sales Order or Website Order.

(c) Customer agrees that it will not (i) modify, adapt, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, reverse assemble or otherwise attempt to discover the source code or underlying algorithms or know-how of any of the Services, the Snag Site or the Software, (ii) create any derivative works from any of the Services, the Snag Site, the App or the Software, (iii) access or use the Services, the Snag Site, the App or the Software for any illegal or unlawful, threatening, abusive, harassing or obscene purpose or for any other purpose prohibited by

Snagajob's policies in place from time to time, (iv) post or otherwise provide any false, misleading or dishonest information or other content on, through or in connection with the Services, the Snagajob Site or the App, or (v) attempt to do any of the foregoing.

4. Payment for Services.

(a) Customer agrees to pay for all of the Services described in each Sales Order and covered by each Website Order at the prices and rates, plus taxes, specified in such Sales Order or by the applicable Website Order Terms, as applicable, and without offset or deduction. Unless another payment method or other payment terms are agreed to by Customer and Snagajob in a Sales Order, all such payments will be due and must be paid within thirty (30) days of the invoice date. If any such payment is not paid when due hereunder, Snag may suspend the delivery of Services to Customer until payment is made, without extending the term of the Services, and Customer agrees to pay Snag interest on such overdue payment at one percent (1%) per month, or the highest rate permitted by applicable law, whichever is lower, and to reimburse Snag on demand for all costs of collection incurred by Snag, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

(b) Customer will be responsible for and agrees to pay all sales, use, value-added, excise and other taxes, if any, relating to the Sales Order(s), the Website Order(s) or the Services, other than taxes based on Snag's net income.

(c) Snag will have the right to modify the prices and rates it charges for the Services in connection with the auto-renewing of Sales Orders or Website Orders by providing not less than ninety (90) days prior written notice to Customer. Such modified prices and rates will become effective at the beginning of the next renewal term for the applicable Services.

5. Term; Termination.

(a) Customer may terminate a Sales Order or Website Order with respect to one or more Services prior to the applicable scheduled termination date(s) if Snag ceases its business activities, makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or becomes the subject of a voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding.

(b) Snag may terminate a Sales Order or Website Order with respect to one or more Services prior to the applicable scheduled termination date(s) if: (i) Customer violates or fails to perform or comply with any of its obligations under Section 3(c) or Section 4(a) of these Employer Terms of Use and such violation or failure continues unremedied for five (5) days; (ii) Customer violates or fails to perform or comply with any of its other material obligations under the Sales Order or Website Order, as applicable, or these Employer Terms of Use and such violation or failure continues unremedied for thirty (30) days after Snag gives written notice of such violation or failure to Customer, or; (iii) Customer ceases its business activities, makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or becomes the subject of a voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding; or (iv) Snag gives thirty (30) days written notice of termination to Customer.

(c) Upon the expiration or earlier termination of a Sales Order or Website Order with respect to one or more Services, (i) the license granted to Customer in Section 3(a) above in connection with the applicable Service(s) will automatically and immediately terminate, and Customer will no longer have any right to use the Snag Site, the App, the Software or any Snag materials in connection with the applicable Service(s); provided that, access to the E-Verify Services shall be provided until notice of the cancellation or termination of the E-Verify account has been received from the U.S. government, (ii) Snag will no longer have any obligation to provide the applicable Service(s), and (iii) Customer will pay to Snag all fees and other amounts due with respect to Services provided on or before the expiration or termination date, and, unless the Sales Order or Website Order is terminated under Section 5(a) above, Customer will pay to Snag all fees and other amounts payable for Services under the applicable Sales Order or Website Order for the remainder of the current initial or renewal term.

(d) Unless a Sales Order or Website Order has been terminated based on Customer's failure to pay fees or other amounts due to Snag under the Sales Order or Website Order, Snag will, upon Customer's written request within thirty (30) days following termination, provide to Customer an electronic copy of Customer Materials (as defined in Section 8(a) below) then available in Snag's system, in a standard data format that is reasonably accessible by Customer. If Customer requests Snag to provide an electronic copy of Customer Materials, Customer agrees to pay Snag's then standard rates for such service. After thirty (30) days following termination or expiration, Snag will have no obligation to maintain or provide any Customer Materials and may thereafter, unless legally prohibited, delete all Customer Materials and/or Basic Hiring Manager employee data in its system or otherwise in its possession or under its control.

(e) The terms of these Employer Terms of Use which by their nature continue in effect after the expiration or earlier termination of the Sales Orders and Website Orders, including, without limitation, Sections 4, 5(c), 5(d), 5(e), 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11, will survive the expiration or earlier termination of any Sales Order or Website Order.
